Alex Papachristidis

This New York designer is drawn equally to opulence and convenience. Consider the wall coverings in the guest bedroom he decorated: Lee Jofa's Royan Damask in Chocolate, a waterproof outdoor fabric, appears to be a rich yet delicate velvet damask, but, Papachristidis says, "you could literally hose the walls down." His stenciled floors are also easy to maintain. True country luxe comes in a four-poster bed, by Frederick P. Victoria, NYC, draped in Lee Jofa's Jardin Chinois in White.
